

I would like to urge the FCC not to allow a few companies to own many media outlets. When organizations such as the NRA (on the right) and MOVE-ON (on the left) agree on this topic, there must be something to it. Please keep diversity of media ownership alive - especially small independent voices. Thank you for your time.